1. INTRODUCTION

Insider Trading is dealing (buying and/ or selling) in the securities by the shareholder of a company, by any connected or deemed to be connected persons while in possession of any material un-published price sensitive information, in breach of a fiduciary duty or other relationship of a trust and confidence, to gain personal benefit out of such dealing.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (the “Regulations”) replaced the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992 w.e.f. May 15, 2015. The Regulations requires every listed company to formulate a code of conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by its employees and other “connected persons” (as defined under the Regulations) towards achieving compliance with these Regulations and enforce a code of internal conduct and procedures based on the model code provided therein.

In compliance with the Regulations, the Company has introduced a Code for Prohibition of Insider Trading (this “Code”). This Code shall come into force with effect from 19TH SEPTEMBER, 2016

OBJECTIVE

3. COMPLIANCE OFFICER

- 3.1 The Company Secretary has been designated as the Compliance Officer of the Company by the board of directors of the Company pursuant to a resolution dated 19TH SEPTEMBER, 2016. In the event the Compliance Officer is on leave, he shall delegate his authority to any executive as he may deem fit and appropriate who shall act as the Compliance Officer during the period of his absence.
- 3.2 The Compliance Officer shall report to the board of directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the board of directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the board of directors.
- 3.3 The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for setting forth the policies, procedures, maintenance of records, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of unpublished price sensitive information, monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code as specified in the Regulations under the overall supervision of the board of directors of the Company.
- 3.4 In the performance of his/her duties, the Compliance Officer shall have access to all information and documents relating to the Securities of the Company.

4. PRESERVATION OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

- 4.1 All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations but where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two Trading Days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine. However, the board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

4.2 Need to know basis – Unpublished price sensitive information of the Company is to be handled on a “need to know” basis i.e., should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or apprehension of misuse of the information. All unpublished price sensitive information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

4.3 Limited access to confidential information - All manual files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. All computer files must have adequate security.

5. PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”

5.1 No Insider shall:

- Trade in Securities of the Company either on their own behalf or on behalf of any other person when in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information; or
- Communicate, counsel, procure, provide or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

5.2 Trading Plan: An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan (“Trading Plan”).

5.3 The Trading Plan shall:

- not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- not entail Trading for the period between the twentieth Trading Day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second Trading Day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and

- not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

5.4 The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Regulations and this Code and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of such plan.

5.5 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the Trading Plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Trading Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in Securities of the Company, if the date of trading in Securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of trading window announced by the Compliance Officer.

5.6 Upon approval of the Trading Plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the Securities are listed.

6. TRADING WINDOW

6.1 The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published. Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

6.2 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the Designated Persons of the Company when he determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such Securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

6.3 The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than 48 hours after the information becomes generally available.

6.4 The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc. assisting or advising the company.

6.5 Other than the period(s) for which the trading window is closed as specified hereinabove, the same shall remain open for dealing in the Securities of the Company.

7. PRE CLEARANCE OF TRADE IN SECURITIES:

7.1 All the persons covered by the Code who proposes to acquire/sell Securities of the Company which are [more than Rs. 10 Lakhs in value or 50,000 shares or 1% of the total shareholding or voting rights, whichever is lower], should pre-clear the transaction. However, no Designated Person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such Designated Person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade. The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:

- A Designated Person shall make a pre-clearance application to the Compliance Officer in the prescribed format Form 1 along with an undertaking stating that he/she has not contravened the provision of this Code.
- If any person covered by the Code, obtained any Price Sensitive Information after executing the undertaking but prior to transacting in Securities of the Company, he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer and refrain from dealing in Securities of the Company.
- All the persons covered by the Code shall execute their order within 7 Working Days of pre clearance of trade. If the transaction is not executed within 7 Working Days of such clearance, fresh approval of the Compliance Officer is required.

7.2 The Compliance Officer shall confidentially maintain a list of such Securities as a “restricted list” which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for preclearance of trades.

7.3 Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

8. CONTRA TRADE

8.1 All Designated Persons shall conduct their dealings in the securities of the Company only in the valid trading window period and shall not enter into “contra trade” i.e. opposite or reverse transactions, in the securities of the Company during the next six months following the prior transaction. The Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the Regulations and this Code. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.

8.2 In the case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 Working Days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

8.3 In case the sale of Securities is necessitated by personal emergency the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing his reasons in this regard. The application for the waiver of the minimum period of holding of the Securities shall be made by the Employee in Form 2 annexed to this Code.

9. CHINESE WALL

9.1 While dealing with or handling UPSI within the Company, the Company shall establish policies, procedures and physical arrangements (collectively “Chinese Walls”) designed to manage confidential information and prevent the inadvertent spread and misuse of UPSI, or the appearance thereof. including an indicative list of information which may be not be communicated in breach of the Chinese Walls

9.2 Chinese Walls shall be used to separate areas that have access to UPSI (“Insider Areas”) from those who do not have such access (“Public Areas”) within the Company.

9.3 Where Chinese Walls arrangements are in place Designated Persons working within an Insider Area are prohibited from communicating any confidential information or UPSI to persons in Public Areas, without the prior approval of the Compliance Officer.

9.4 [The Company shall, inter alia, adopt the following Chinese Walls procedures, and processes for permitting any Designated Person to “cross the wall”:

- (i) Physical separation of departments to insulate them from each other;
- (ii) A recurring educational programme would be conducted by the Company, to emphasize the importance of improperly or inadvertently divulging confidential information;
- (iii) Strict and carefully defined procedures for dealing with situations where it is thought that the wall should be crossed, and maintaining of proper records where that occurs;
- (iv) Monitoring by the Compliance Officer of the effectiveness of the Chinese Wall;
- (v) Disciplinary sanctions where there has been a breach of the wall;
- (vi) Files containing confidential information or UPSI shall be kept secure and computer files must have adequate security of login and password; and
- (vii) Without prejudice to the above, the Designated Persons shall follow such guidelines for maintenance of electronic records and systems as may be prescribed by the Compliance Officer from time to time after consultations with the person in charge of the information technology and security teams.]

9.5 A Designated Person within a Chinese Wall will have a responsibility to ensure that the Chinese Wall is not breached deliberately or inadvertently. Known or suspected breaches of the Chinese Wall must be referred to the Compliance Officer immediately. Any person who receives UPSI in breach of Chinese Walls would immediately be considered to be covered by the restrictions mentioned in this Code.

9.6 A Designated Person may cross the Chinese Wall to enter the Insider Areas only with the prior approval of the Compliance Officer, and would be subject to all restrictions that apply to such areas.

9.7 The establishment of Chinese Walls does not suggest or imply that UPSI can circulate freely within Insider Areas.

10. DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

Initial Disclosure

Every Promoter, Key Managerial Personnel and director of the Company and any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of these regulations taking effect, within 30 Working Days in Form A;
